CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A FULL SESSION YESTERDAY.

Discussions—The Suffering Frenchmen—Telegraphy to Canton, China-Application of Steam to Canals-Peter Cooper's Opinions on City Government-Accountability and Economy in All Departments.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday afternoon, William Dodge in the chair. Charles G. Francklyn was cted a member of the Chamber.

THE SUFFERING PRENCHMEN. H. Marshall offered a series of resolution providing that the Chamber of Commerce should organize a movement for the relief of the suffering prevailing in France, and that a committee of thirty should be appointed by the chair to determine on the best means of so doing. S. B. Ruggles, in seconding the adoption of the resolutions, spoke strongly in their favor.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted. The President then named the following thirty persons to serve on the committee:—Charles H. Marshall, William E. Dodge, S. B. Ruggles, Alfred S. Barnes, Lloyd Aspinwall, Charles E. Beebe, D. Colden Murray, Henry Clews, George Cabot Ward, Pitt Cooke, W. Watts Sherman, A. T. Stewart, Oliver Harriman, A. S. Hatch, E. S. Jaffray, Morris K. Jesup, John Taylor Johnston, Theodore Rooseveit, Charles Lanier, Pierre Lorillard, J. Pierrepont Morgan, L. P. Morton, Jackson S. Schultz, R. Warren Weston, Anson Phelps Stokes, John A. Stewart. Cyrus W. Field, Stephen W. Carey, William Seymour, Jr., Charles D. Dickey, Isaac H. Reed, John T. Denny.

S. B. Ruggles announced that the Champer could communicate in a week with Canton, the cable having been laid to Singapore. This fact, he ob-served, was satisfactory; but, on the other hand, were so heavy as to be almost oppressive.

PETER COOPER said that the high prices were absolutely unavoidable, as the telegraph companies could not afford to charge less. Mr. Ruggles'observed that he did not believe that they could, and he did not wish to accuse them of making exorbitant demands. What he wished to impress upon the Chamber was the necessity of a Pacific Ocean cable, laid at the expense of the gov-

STRAM ON CANALS.

Mr. Heney R. Worthington then read a long and able report upon the subject of application of steam to canals. The report recommended the adoption of the following resolution:—

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Chamber of Com-nerce the application of steam to canal navigation deserves ultable legislative protection and encouragement, as tending a increase the efficiency, capacity and economy of our sys-em of inland transportation.

guitable legislative protection and encouragement, as tending to increase the efficiency, capacity and economy of our system of inland transportation.

W. S. GRIFFITHS moved the report be recommitted and that the committee be instructed to draw up a memorial to the Legislature asking them to give aid to the project.

Mr. Worthington said that it was of no use to go for aid to the Legislature on the subject. He had been to them before, and he was answered then, as he would doubtless be answered again, that if the invention were a good thing it would succeed by itself; if it were not a good thing it would succeed by itself; if it were not a good thing it would fall. He did not wish to have the responsibility of the matter on his shoulders.

Mr. GRIFFITHS trusted that the report might be recommitted, and that the chairman of the committee (Mr. Worthington) would be induced to give the matter the benefit of his experience.

PETER COOPER Spoke at considerable length in favor of the application of steam to canal traffic, and said that he believed that the main obstacle to it had been overcome.

Mr. RUGGLES suggested that the resolution be forwarded to the Canal Board of the State, instead of to the Legislature, as the Canal Board had entire power in the matter. This suggestion was unanimously adopted.

A NEW CHAMBER WANTED.

The following resolution, offered by Captain Snow, was adopted:—

Resolved, That measures be taken to obtain permanent secommodations for the use of the Chamber of Commerce.

Resolved, That Measrs, A. A. Low, William E. Dodge and George Opdyke be, and are herely appointed, a special committee (to be known as the Committee on a New Building with power to collect information and submit recommendations to the Chamber on this subject.

mendations to the Chamber on this subject.

THE CITY GOVERNEENT.

PETER COPPER then began to read an address boon the course of action necessary to maintain the supremacy of this city as a commercial emportum, and the best way to secure good government. He was once or twice called to order, but the point was not pressed, as he declared that he did not ask the Chamber to approve any of his opinions. Of the efforts for a good city government he said:

As an additional ground of hope for the ruture prosperity of our city, I have the pleasure to state that I have received the strongest assurance from the principal men now holding power in the government of this city that it is their determination to do what they can to carry into practical operation plans agreed on to secure accountability and economy in all the different departments of the government of our city. It was the hope of bringing about a good government for our city that led several hundred men to form themselves into a Citizens' Association, an association that has labored persistently through a long course of years to obtain the much was the hope of bringing about a good government for our city that led several hundred men to form themselves into a Citizens' Association, an association that has labored persistently through a long course of years to obtain the much needed reforms, and I will now say that I have never before seen a better prospect for an improved government than I now see, with the men now holding power under the new charter, a charter that was passed by an almost unanimous vote of the Legislature of our State.

It is well for all to look at what has been preserved to our city by the Legislature of the previous winter. That Legislature gave us a new charter that itself the responsibility for the future good government on his Honor the Mavor, making him directly responsible, by giving him the appointment of our city. That charter has not only preserved all the commissions that formed the only redeeming part of the former government—such as the Board of Health, the Fire Department, the Central Park, the Commissioners of Charities and Correction, the Board of Education and the Police Department, all of which have been an honor to this city. It has given us, in addition, a Board of Docks, of vast importance to the future commerce of New York. And to kayor that I take pleasure in asying that I believe the men be has placed in charge of that mortunate to their care under this new charter. It is now the privilege and duty of every good citizen that knows of malfers sance in an y of the departments of the government comistant has been proven the charter makes it the duty of the Mayor of the Eric Canal more than doubled by the application of steam as a motter ower, we may rely with confidence on the continuance of a trade that has already added hundreds of millions of dollars to the value of New York. JOHN EADIE then offered resolutions to the effect that Committee No. 3 be requested to inquire intended the causes of the fluctuations in the value of coined money, as measured by legal tender paper money and report thereon. The resolutions were so re ferred.

The Chamber then adjourned.

Business Transacted.
This department, one of the most important of the Custom House, has never been in such a prosperous condition as under the present adm tion. This statement is substantiated by the follow uon. This statement is substantiated by the following extract from the official report to the Secretary of the Treasury:—There were 9.288 withdrawal entries from the bonded warehouse, and the duties received on them amounted to $46,095.041 78. The number of transportation entries passed during last month was 241, and 1,701 warehouse bonds were given. The number of exports to Canada was 163, and that of foreign experts 445. Rewarehouse entries, viz., entries received from other peace. ports to Canada was 163 and that of foreign exports 45. Rewarchouse entries, viz., entries received from other ports in the United States, 164, and the following were the liquidations and adjustments of warchouse entries:—Number of entries liquidated, 1,973; entries awalting reports, 733; total number of entries sent for liquidation, 2,766. Sale of the Contents of the Deacon (Pronounced "De Con") Chateau in Boston-What the Old Master's Productions are Worth-Agents of New York Railroad Princes on Hand-Intrinsic Value of Articles Sold Small, but Prices Enormous.

From the Boston Heraid, Feb. 2.]

No local topic has excited more comment and interest among the wealthy and fashionable people of the city during the past week than the Deacon House, located on the corner of Washington and Concord streets. The interest began a month or two since, when it was amounced that the house and contents were to be sold at auction, and has grown daily in intensity irom that time to this. The general history of the house—now it was built some years ago by Mr. Deacon, the husband of a Boston heiress; how it was modelled after the style of a French matson de ville belonging to a wealthy citizen, and how it was furnished by a lavisa expenditure with many articles of elegance selected with a rare taste—all this was long since known to many, and has recently been stated with great detail in some of the daily papers, so that every reader has had an opportunity to understand it, and many of them have had their curlosity excited to the last degree either to see or to purchase the contents of these boulours, said to be almost as beautiful as scenes in fairy land. This curiosity has led something more than thirteen thousand persons, during the last formight, to consult Mr. Frank Leonard, the auctioneer, and selicit of him the pasteboards requisite to secure admission to these bowers of beauty. Of late Mr. Leonard has been compelled to seek seclusion to prevent being driven to distraction by these applicants.

At half-past nine o'clock (yesterday) the doors were opened to those who held the right kind of tackets, and the apartments were soon filed up. It was rumored that agents of Fisk, Vanderblit, Stewart and other money kings were present.

Finally, when ten o'clock arrived, Mr. Leonard announced that people were present in plenty to begin the sale, and as the hour had come he would commence in the hall. Towards this there was a sudden rush, and as the hour had come he would commence in the hall. Towards this there was a sudden rush, and the auctioneer, mounting the status of the sale was by orde

The following persons were chosen its directors:—President, H. G. Heot; Vice Presidents, Colonel J. B. Mead and Harley M. Hall; Secretary, L. T. Tucker; Treasurer, Henry C. Horton.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

On 'Change to-day wheat was firmer, in sympathy with the advance in gold and lighter receipts. At the same time freights to Europe were easier. The cotton marker was quiet and steady.

GOLD ACTIVE-111% A 111%. The gold market was strong from the beginning of business, the hardening tendency communicated by the large shipment of specie yesterday being assisted by the cable news of the arming of Austria and apprehensions of a general war in Europe? Later in the day, when consols were reported lower and our five-twenties in London down to 90%, the market became excited and the price of gold, under price it encountered heavy sales, which turned it back to 111%, from which point there was an eventual recovery to 111% at the close.

THE GOVERNMENT GOLD SALE also contributed to the activity and advance in the market by displaying the competition which existed among buyers, whose proposals for the government treasure amounted to $6,000,500, at prices ranging from 110.50 to 111.88. The bid at the latter figure was from one firm for a total of $700,000, the balance being awarded in two lots, as follows:-$250,000 at 111.83 and $50,000 at 111.82. Considering that the best price in the Gold Room was 111.87% the transaction was highly satisfactory to the government. With reference to the lot of $700,000, it is said that it was taken for the account of one of the banks, with a view to exchanging for it some of the national bank notes, which now impede the loaning powers of the bank. The gold was sold in the market at 111.87% at a slight loss, apparently; but in reality the transaction allowed a small profit, by reason of the percentage of difference between the value of greenbacks and the value of national bank notes, not to speak of the greater freedom enjoyed by the bank in converting $700,000 of its resources into le-gal reserve. This explanation is necessary in view of the apprehension in the Gold Room that gold was in as active demand as might appear from the simple transaction of the large purchase to-day at such high figures. It was the opportunity afforded for converting the inelastic national bank currency into greenbacks that really inspired the whole operation, and not any fresh requirement for the precious metal. It was the discovery of this fact and the reaction from the hasty conclusions of the forenoon, based on the news concerning Austria, that occasioned the subsequent decline from 111% to 111%. The course of the price of gold during the day is shown in the table:-

In the gold loan market the rates ranged from three to six per cent for carrying. The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank were as follows:-

 Gold cleared
 $43,733,000

 Gold balances
 1,431,818

 Currency balances
 1,659,780
 The European steamer took out a nominal shipment—only $4,000 in specie.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE FIRM. The foreign exchange market was firm at the highest of the recent quotations. In fact, according to some calculations, the specie shipping point is now reached. The market, however, reflects the presence of some curious inconsistencies. The louble eagles shipped yesterday by one of the Canadian bank agencies went at a loss, when the expenses of shipping are contrasted with the rates at exchange was selling. On the other hand, it appears that a loan negotiated some time since in Europe by the Camden and Amboy Railroad Company is in process of shipment here (by bills of exchange), which will account for the sudden large supply a few days ago, to which we called attention at the time and which was supposed to originate in drafts against the shipment of arms to France, although Paris was at the time reofficials state that they were peremptorily ordered to ship the bullion. As to the Camden and Amboy matter it is probable that the officers of the road waited the present opportunity of selling their bills, when both gold and exchange were up. other paintings, most of them old, brought good prices.

The marked and other contents of this room, which are said to have been in actual use by the unhappy queen. The saic was as follows:—Arbusson carpet, $1 05 per yard; small painting in ceiling, by Fragonard, "Cherubs at Play," $65, Mr. Sprague; two oil paintings, lunettes of cupids, $131 each; to Mr. Dana; two large mirrors, $161 each; mantel piece of white and gilt, and fireplace in arabesque designs, $120, Mr. Sprague; clock and candlebras of light bronze and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres, $100 each, Mr. Sprague; clock and candlebras of light bronze and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres, $100 each, Mr. Sprague; clock and candlebras of light bronze secretary, light wood, gilt, with Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevres medallions, $310, Mr. Parker; two carvel lamps, gilt and Sevr a 5.11%; Hamburg, 35% a 36%; Amsterdam, 40% a 41%; Frankfort, 40% a 41%; Bremen, 78% a 79%;

Prussian thaiers, 711/2 a 72. MONEY EASIER-POUR TO SIX PER CENT. In the earlier hours of the day some borrowers paid six per cent on call loans, with pleage of miscellaneous collaterals, but the supply toward the close of banking hours, and in fact during most of the afternoon, was so abundant that five per cent became the general rate. Among the government dealers the rates were four and five per cent. Commercial paper was easier, and the choice grade passed at seven per cent discount.

GOVERNMENTS LOWER.

The decline in our bonds in London seemed to offset the effect of the rise in gold on this side as far as the government list was concerned, and the market settled down about a quarter per cent. There was no special weakness, however, and the market at the new stage of prices was strong. The following were the final street quotations:-United States currency sixes, 111% a 111%; do. sixes, 1881, registered, 113 a 113%; do. do., coupon, 113 a 113%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 109% a 110; do. do., 1862, coupon, do., 110% a 110%; do. do., 1864, do. do., 109% a 110%; do. do. 1865, do. do., 109% a 110%; do. do., registered, January and July, 109 a 109%; do. do., 1865, coupon. do., 108% a 109; do. do., 1867, do. do., 109 a 10914: do. do., 1868. do. do., 10914 a 10914: do. tenforties, registered (ex. int.), 106% a 106%; do. do. coupon, 109% a 109%.

STOCKS WEAK AND LOWER. The stock market was in the hands of the "bears," or rather parties who are for the time being interested in lower prices. These are the cliques and pools whe recently ran prices up so sharply, and at the most buoyant period unloaded upon the outsiders. They are now desirious of getting their stocks back again, and for this purpose the Long Room begins to resound with stories of another "lock up" of money, to be assisted by taking specie out of the banks-a loss of reserve which the latter could but poorly stand should vesterday's shipment of specie be continued for a little while in the future. The New York Centra party sold out some time since, and were followed by the Ohio and Mississippi clique. One after another the other pools followed, the last to hold on being the combinations in Lake Shore and Wabash. It is said that the "calls" on Lake Shore, to which reference was made yesterday, were in some instances settled priva tely. Now begins the combined strategy for the recovery (at lower prices) of the stocks parted with. To day Harlem was knocked nown from 129 to 1221/2 for its effect on New York Central (all the Vanderbilt securities sympathizing together). At the same time rumor had it that the Legislature was about to interdict the use of steam on the Harlem Railroad, below Westchester county. Another report succeeded to the effect that there was to be a new issue of stock to the extent of 10,000 shares (which would be $500,000 at par). The public will doubtless remember that we have duly observed and noted the doings and plans of the cliques. One week ago to-day-exactly-when the "January rise" was culminating, the HERALD advised its readers that:—

At this stage a selling movement began and appearances seemed to indicate that the speculative cliques were realizing, in furtherance of their usual strategy of "milking the street." At least the outsiders seemed to think so, and a great deal of stock changed hands in the afternoon, with the effect of producing a general decline and unsettling the market in almost all directions. On the following day-iast Friday-we had occa-

In Monday's HERALD the review of Wall street for the week contained the following with reference to matters at the Stock Exchange:

The course of prices was not devoid of irregularity, however—a result attributed to a lack of harmony in the views of the speculative combinations and larger holders, some of whom evidently realized on the biovancy of their specialities early in the week, while the rest kept fast hold of their possessions.
